

Powerful Presentation Skills for Women

The most critical skill in business today is the power to communicate effectively – especially for women who want to succeed. This in-depth 7-week training program delivers maximum results for women who want to significantly improve their verbal and non-verbal communication skills. Enhancing your communication skill is the one thing that will give you the most leverage when it comes to smashing the glass ceiling.

Learn to get your point across clearly and concisely, win the confidence of your audience, and get the action-oriented results you desire every time. In a short time, you'll learn the key attributes of successful presentations and then have the opportunity to put your knowledge to work. In a highly supportive environment, you will learn and grow along side other business women as you share the journey of conquering the number one fear among people today.

Key Learning Points:

- Discovery why and how the fear of speaking in public grips and paralyzes, and learn to turn that fear into a powerful ally instead of a tormenting foe
- Eliminate the disastrous mistakes women tend to make most often, while maximizing the power of your unique style
- Learn the basics of speechwriting and slice your preparation time into minutes instead of hours, making you able to be prepared at a moments notice

Whether you are communicating informally in a small group setting, or presenting from a stage to a huge audience, the ability to deliver a powerful message is easily learned. Learn the do's and don'ts of presenting as a woman on the platform and in the boardroom, and break through the barrier that may be holding you back.

Transform your speaking style and transform your career.

Dawn Frail inspires leaders to build trust and loyalty so their teams will increase productivity and deliver higher bottom-line profits. She helps leaders and organizations achieve dynamic these results by creating a powerful leadership team – from the inside out. Timeless wisdom is brought to life through interactive workshops, seminars and keynotes. Dawn is a professional speaker, trainer and mentor known for her 'refreshing boldness' as she delivers a powerful and much needed message in business today.

Comments from participants at recent Powerful Presentation Skills course:

'I liked the fact that it challenges you to step outside of your comfort zone and the fact that I was coached on what I could improve on.'

'I really liked how Dawn was able to catch the little things and see the bigger picture. She was able to critique without putting you down.'

'Perfect personality for this course! She's friendly, easily approached and can command the room with ease – leading by example of how perfect presentations should be done.'