

The Leadership Audit

What would help you become a better leader?

- Create a compelling vision, mission and goals that ignites the team to perform with excellence
- Identify underlying core values that drive your leadership behaviour
- Understand the effect on the bottom line of trust and loyalty in the workplace
- Learn specific steps to recover from past mistakes so the team can 'get over it' and move on
- Better* manage your strengths and weaknesses to increase your own productivity level
- Better* manage personality conflicts to capitalize on team diversity
- Identify dangerous stress triggers that inhibit peak performance
- Know how to develop your team into a strong unified group of top performers
- Manage performance expectations to get better results from them with less stress on you
- Create a highly engaged and self-motivated team that performs when you are not there
- Understand the cause of miscommunication and learn to maximize understanding
- Learn to craft and deliver a more engaging message to all levels of the organization
- Understand why people resist change as strongly as they do
- Learn a process to break through resistance, no matter what the cause
- Learn a no-fail process to analyze change that helps in problem solving and decision making
- Design a plan to more effectively communicate change
- Understand the key concepts of project and goal execution
- Learn a better formula for creating an executable goal that drives high-leverage activities
- Learn a better process of measuring results that motivates the team to achieve
- Implement a systematic process for imbedding accountability into the team
- Learn to build leadership capabilities among the members of the team