

9. Create a powerful introduction that will capture their attention with the first sentence. Tell them what you're going to tell them. Use your powerful title here.	1. What topic are you passionate about?
3. If you could only tell them one thing about your topic, what would it be? (one sentence only)	6. Elaborate on your point using P.E.P. (point, example, point)
4. If you could only tell them one more thing about your topic, what would it be? (one sentence only)	7. Elaborate on your point using P.E.P. (point, example, point)
5. If you could only tell them one more thing about your topic, what would it be? (one sentence only)	8. Elaborate on your point using P.E.P. (point, example, point)
10. Create a memorable conclusion by reviewing your main points and having a powerful 'call to action.' Use your powerful title here.	2. What do you want the audience to do, know or be as a result of your talk? What action do you want them to take?